April 2010 Cover Illustration drawn by Mark Powell, Beachamwell © There are signs of spring at last; spring flowers in bloom, ducks wandering up the road and some warmer temperatures. By the time this is published, the clocks will have changed and we can begin to enjoy the light after the long winter dark. There are plenty of events to enjoy in all our villages, not forgetting the four northern villages in our group. It's often amazing how many links there are across such a wide and diverse group of villages: church, choirs, WI, garden clubs, coffee mornings, family and friends, weaving a complex pattern of relationships. Not always successfully, but always interesting! A very happy Easter to all whom we know throughout the group.

As always, 'Happy Reading ' The Editorial Team Eileen, Janet and Pam

'FROM THE RECTORY'

From the Bishop of Huntingdon

Thank you very much for the invitation to write again for your magazine. Last year I remembered too how easy it was for rural parishes to feel not blessed but forgotten – with Bishops that pass by on the other side like the one in the window at Hilgay.

Appointing a priest to your benefice is proving far harder than any of us imagined – but perhaps because of that you are not being forgotten! I often think of you, and those thoughts took a new turn recently when we realised that my wife's ancestor, William Jones, lived at Woodhall, near the very same Hilgay, so her family were once not passers-by but locals themselves. The watercolour shown here hangs on her mother's wall!

All this made me think how important a sense of Place is to us. Knowing Where we are is part of knowing Who we are; and when we know Who we are we start to understand Why we are, and What we should be about.

We can diagnose the ills of today under just these headings. We rush around in our cars and on the internet, but lose track of where we belong. Being individual is everything and we have choices which would flabbergast our forebears, but our communities are disappearing and who are we then? And opportunities exist now that could fill an encyclopaedia, but the old fashioned virtues of duty, vocation and service seem just that – so why do anything except look after number one?

Rural communities are at the front line of our mission to put the real life back into living. They are often the places under most threat, but they are also the places with the most opportunity. Here our local churches embody the place they are in, its history, its identity. They are places of prayer where people can rediscover themselves individually and together. And from that prayer flows a sense of purpose that can transform a whole community.

Mission Action Planning – but country style. Loving our old churches; loving one another; and taking God's love to all.

EASTER AT HOME (OR WHEREVER WE WILL BE)

Inevitably, in order to meet deadlines, an Easter message for G4N has to be written in mid Lent so any review of Lent will be incomplete. It is however worth an attempt because it against authentic Lenten experiences that we can best experience the glorious personal and communal renewal that can be ours at Easter. (In our climate we can usually make some comparison such as emergence from a long dark winter into the bright freshness of Spring).

Lent will have been different for each of us and my prayer is that the reality of the Resurrection will put into perspective and perhaps clarify those issues that have confronted us during Lent. My rather reluctant Lenten agenda has been an unlooked for tussle with Truth. In looking for a leadership that points to what is true, I find that it is not so much words that reveal the Truth that is at the heart of our Christian faith, but actions.

Pilate, desperate to do the self-justifying yet popular thing asks "What is Truth ?". The actions and teaching of Jesus brought him to the point of trial. The saving actions of Christ in the life of the Church, our group of small communities, can and will reveal his truth. Truth in action will reveal the authentic life of the Church and is it that Truth that will both set us free and unite us.

The Church in Action (or what we can do to celebrate the Truth of Holy Week and Easter) $% \left({{\left[{{{\rm{C}}_{\rm{T}}} \right]}_{\rm{T}}}} \right)$

Palm Sunday We can stand up and be counted as we join in a short Procession with our palm crosses and a donkey and take part in the dramatised reading for the day.(Barton Bendish)

Maundy Thursday is the day when those who had been with Jesus in his trials (those of us who have struggled this Lent?), gathered together for a Fellowship meal (The Lord's Supper) at which they felt bound together as they went out into the dark night of self-denial and on into Good Friday with its very personal death to self in response to Jesus bearing our sins and those of the whole world.

In the churches there will be opportunities to reflect on the meaning of Good Friday both in quiet meditation and with music at Wereham at 7pm (please see leaflet). It is the depth and darkness of Good Friday that eventually reveals the wonders of Easter with its new life for each of us, but recognized by what we do together.

Our Easter activities begin with the Easter ceremonies which include the new fire (yes a real bonfire) illuminating the dark of Holy Saturday evening and moving to the first Eucharist of Easter (in Boughton church). Easter cannot be secularised – the Resurrection was and is, supremely, God in action for each of us.

Palm Crosses, Hot Cross Buns, Easter Eggs and other chocolatey things are not Easter themselves but are signs, to be enjoyed, with which we celebrate God's actions for us and which help us to remember that his Truth is greater than words.

COUNTRYSIDE NOTES

It was reported last summer that otters have returned to every county in England. There were only a few localised populations left so it's good to have some positive results that an animal has been rescued from the brink of extinction. Just as with our birds of prey their plight wasn't brought about through persecution or hunting, but by pollution and pesticides.

After the last war the need to increase food production led to intensive faming methods and a lot of mistakes were made but no one then was fully aware of the long term consequences. In the early 1950s habitat was destroyed under the plough, chicken and pigs moved out of the fields into huge sheds and organochlorine pesticides such as dieldrin, aldrin and DDT used extensively. These not only directly polluted rivers but over the years were shown to have secondary effects through residues building up in the prey species of predators resulting in an unforeseen chain reaction. Many predators died as a result of feeding on mice, voles and rats. Some like otters died from feeding on contaminated fish. It's thought their decline probably began in the 1800s when the industrial revolution polluted many of our waterways. It is greatly improved water quality as well as conservation measures which have brought about their revival.

The Otter Trust near Bungay (now closed) set up a breeding programme so that otters could be reintroduced to supplement the few that survived in the wild. This was such a success that three years ago there was no longer the need to breed otters in captivity as the areas in which they had been absent for twenty or thirty years were being naturally recolonised. I used to work on a big estate near Thetford through which flowed two rivers. Otters don't have territories as such but ranges and, although they are aquatic animals, will travel long distances cross country. There were plenty of signs of otters but they were rarely seen, I never actually saw a live one. On two occasions dead ones were found run over on the road as they tried to cross from one river to the other. It was through investigating reports like ours that the Otter Trust was able to establish the success of the reintroductions for the ones they released had all been micro chipped. Unlike those around the coast in Scotland which hunt during daylight those living on inland waterways are mostly nocturnal. Strangely, although they are generally considered to be shy, they have been recorded on rivers in the centre of large towns and cities such as Winchester, Exeter, Middlesborough, Sunderland and West London and have also been discovered in greenhouses, straw bales and even abandoned cars! As nice as it is to have them back in our countryside they are carnivorous predators. It's good news that they will see off mink and kill rats but unfortunately they also have a great liking for fish and certainly aren't so welcome when they raid garden ponds and commercial fisheries. Eels, which have also greatly declined in recent years, are their favourite food and it would be a shame if the revival of one species led to another becoming extinct. It's also hoped that they don't turn their attentions to our decreasing stocks of wild salmon, trout and water voles.

Luke 23

¹And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. ⁴Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people. I find no fault in this man, ⁵And they were the more fierce, saving. He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. ⁶When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean. ⁷And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time. ¹⁷(For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.) ¹⁸And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas: ¹⁹(Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.) ²⁰Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them. ²¹But they cried, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. ²²And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? ²⁵And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will. ²⁶And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. ²⁷And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented him. ³³And when they were come to the place, which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. ³⁴Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. ³⁵And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saving. He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God, ³⁶And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar. ³⁷And saving. If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself. ⁵²This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. ⁵³And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

Luke 24

¹Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. ¹⁰It was Mary Magdalene and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles. ¹²Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass. ¹³And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. ³⁴Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. ³⁹Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me ⁴⁵Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand the have. scriptures. ⁴⁶And said unto them. Thus it is written, and thus it was fitting for Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: ⁴⁷And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. ⁴⁸And ye are witnesses of these things. ⁴⁹And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

RECIPE FOR THE MONTH

FRENCH ONION SOUP

This is a great soup that you will be able to throw together with very little cost and fuss. The addition of the cheesy French bread just hits the spot. If you leave the bread in the soup to the end it will have soaked up the delicious liquid. For vegetarians; just use vegetable stock cubes instead of beef. Serves 4

Ingredients

- 4 Teaspoons oil.
- 4 Teaspoons butter.
- 2 Large red onions, thinly sliced.
- 2 Cloves garlic, peeled and chopped.
- 4 Teaspoons flour.
- 2 Pints beef stock.
- Seasoning.
- 4 Rounds of French stick.
- A little grated cheese

Method

1. Heat the oil and butter in a pan and gently fry the onion and garlic for 8 minutes.

2. Sprinkle over the flour and cook gently, stirring, for another 2 minutes.

3. Gradually stir in the stock and bring up to the boil, stirring constantly.

4. Reduce the heat and simmer the soup gently for 25 minutes.

5. Just before the soup is ready, turn the grill on high and sprinkle the cheese on the French stick rounds.

6. Grill the bread until the cheese is bubbling.

7. Serve the soup piping hot with one cheesy French bread slice floating on the top.

ABOUT EASTER

Easter is the time of the Christian year when Christians remember the Death and Resurrection of Jesus Christ. They believe that Jesus, who they believe was the son of God, died for everyone's wrong-doings and then came back to life three days later to defeat death and evil: so if you believe in Him you will live forever in Heaven.

The word 'Easter' comes from two old pagan spring festivals. The old European pagan festival of 'Ostara' that celebrated new life and Arabian Sun festival of 'Ishtar'. The early Christians took over the festivals and turned the pagan festivals of new life to mean the new life that Jesus gave the world when he rose from the dead. Unlike Christmas, when Jesus's birth is celebrated (although we don't know what time of year Jesus was born!), Easter is celebrated around the same time of year that he was killed. This is because Jesus died at the time of the Jewish Passover festival.

The Passover festival dates from about 4,000 years ago when Jewish people remember that God saved them from slavery in Egypt. Jesus was a Jew and so celebrated the Passover. Passover takes place in the first month of the Jewish New Year (14-15 of the month of Nisan). The Jewish calendar follows the cycle of the moon, so the date changes a bit every year.

The first Jewish Christians added Easter celebrations to the Passover festival and because Jesus rose from the dead on a Sunday, so Easter Day became the first Sunday after Passover.

Over the years, the Christian festival moved in date slightly from the Jewish Passover, so they don't now have the same date, but sometimes they are very close! The Christian date for Easter also follows the moon, so it also changes every year. To make things even more complicated, Orthodox Christians celebrate Easter, like Christmas, on a different day to Catholic and Western Christians!

For Christians, the full Easter period lasted for a long time. Easter officially starts with Lent on Ash Wednesday 46 days before Easter Day. (Lent lasts for 40 days but you don't count the Sundays!) Then 39 days after Easter Day, Christians celebrate Ascension Day, when they remember Jesus going back into Heaven and promising to come back to earth one day. Easter officially ends 49 days after Easter Day with the Christian Festival of Pentecost or Whitsun, when Christians remember that God sent his Holy Spirit to help Christians. So Easter is a very busy time for Christians!

Give me the grace to see a joke, To get some humour out of life, And pass it on to other folk.

Free Offering

A little child, in church for the first time, watched as the ushers passed the offering plates.

When they neared the pew where he sat, the youngster piped up so that everyone could hear him say, "Don't pay for me Daddy, I'm under five."

PASSION PLAYS

In medieval Europe, most people could not read or write, so they had to be told Bible stories rather than reading them.

Passion Plays were the plays telling the Easter Story. They were called Passion Plays because the word 'Passion' is sometimes used to mean that Jesus loved everyone so much that he died for us.

One of the most famous Passion Plays that is still performed takes place in the German village of Oberammergau. They do this to say 'Thank You' to God because he saved the village from the black death in 1633. These Passion Plays are held every ten years. The whole village takes part and the whole play lasts eight hours! The performances go on for several months.

Passion Plays are also performed in York in the UK, Spain, Italy, Mexico, the U.S.A and other countries. Sometimes the plays are performed in the old language that would have been used in medieval times.

GARDENING TIPS

As I write this, in the middle of March, there is the hope that spring may at last be on the horizon. Whatever happens this year, gardeners will be well behind their normal work schedule. This means that everything needs to be done at the same time. I suggest making a list of the jobs, prioritise them and then work steadily through the various tasks. This makes life much easier than trying to think about them all at the same time. Hopefully, by the time you read this, the ground will be drier and warmer and perhaps some spring flowers will be out.

Undoubtedly we shall all find that some of our cherished plants will have suffered damage and even dieback due to the severe winter conditions. Don't be afraid to prune back hard where necessary to remove all suspect material. If not already done, roses need pruning now. HT roses, now categorised as 'large bloom', should be cut back hard to produce high quality flowers. Floribundas, now known as cluster roses, should not be cut back quite so hard, say to about 18" (45 cm), but in all cases cut out all weak growth. Climbing varieties need all old flowering shoots cut back to the main stems which should be bent over in a smooth curve and tied down to their supports causing the plant to produce nice new upright growths from the old stems for the new season's flowers. When pruned it is a good idea to clean up round the plants, disposing safely of any old leaves that had black spot. Give the bushes a good feed, and if you believe in them, spray with both fungicide and pesticide.

Many lawns that I have seen are in a poor way after the hard winter. Any moss needs treating, the lawns need scarifying and if hard, spiking. A good feed at this stage is always recommended. A nicely cut and trimmed lawn is a joy to behold but, please don't cut them too short. Cutting lawns too short can encourage moss growth and does not help them in dry weather. The minimum should be a cut of 1" but much better to leave the cut at $1^{1}/_{2}$ ". The latter may of course mean cutting more often!

All perennials need tidying up at this time cutting down the old season's growth and carefully removing all of the old dead growth from around the base of the plants, particularly important with Hostas to try to keep the slugs at bay!

If not already done, a start can now be made with the main vegetable sowings. It's still too early for carrots and beetroot unless you can offer adequate protection against a late frost but most others will be fine.

I wish you successful gardening.

My conclusion, I am really enjoying myself. It is hard work fitting the reading and essays around a full time job. However I am supported in many ways by many people and it has developed me in my Christian life. I would say speak to someone if you feel God is asking.

HOW TO PLANT YOUR GARDEN

For the garden of your daily living:

Plant three rows of peas:	No garden is without turnips:
Peace of mind	Turnip for meetings
Peace of heart	Turnip for service
Peace of soul	Turnip to help one another
Plant four rows of squash: thyme:	To conclude our garden, we must have
Squash gossip	Thyme for each other
Squash indifference	Thyme for family
Squash grumbling	Thyme for friends
Squash selfishness
Plant four rows of lettuce:
	Water freely with patience, and cultivate
Lettuce be faithful	with love. There is much fruit in your
Lettuce be kind	garden because you reap what you sow.
Lettuce be patient	Plant your garden and harvest happiness!
Lettuce really love one another

BECOMING A LICENCED LAY MINISTER

Last year I wrote a piece about my LLM course as I finished my first module on the Old Testament. I thought you may be interested in an update. Firstly LLM means Licensed Lay Minister, previously called Reader. At the time, the question was asked as to how thorough the course is. Well I think I can say it is thorough. Ely diocese want to produce well trained, well prepared candidates and this starts with the course being three and half years long.

I loved the Old Testament and the shortened look in ten weeks. It put the history together for me and how the prophets fit in, in the later sections. We should heed their warnings. As many of my Church know I have fallen in love with the psalms and would recommend anyone to dip in and let the words flow over you. Next we looked at the New Testament, looking at the life of Christ and his preaching followed by the letters of Christ's followers. What an insight into life at the time and the newly growing Church; the introduction of the Gentiles into the new faith of Christianity. Again many good words still relevant today in our Churches.

Alongside these two modules, ran the Preaching 1 unit, preparing me for writing and giving sermons. I have given two official sermons with feedback forms at the end – did you think Ofsted style was only in schools!?! My teaching background has helped in the preparation and I have enjoyed the background reading.

No sooner had Christmas finished then it was the start of the Ethics module. This looks at Christian beliefs to issues and how our experiences and background may affect our views. It has been challenging as I am quite private in some things and we are looking at issues that perhaps people avoid discussing until they meet it head long. It has been good to look at the bible references and the messages from God on the issues. Some issues, however, have little reference in the bible and it is deciding how it all fits in with the larger picture. Currently the Church of England Synod faces making decisions on the issues of Woman Bishops, 'Gay' clergy and Civil Partnerships. These are all very emotive subjects and all with different groups offering different interpretations and opinions. It is important that we look at what we believe and understand from God's word. The module concludes with a 2500 word essay, an outline sermon and a presentation, as do most of the modules. The ethics is taught by an A Level Ethics teacher who says that in an evening we cover what it would take three weeks of lessons to cover, so I know we are working at a good standard.

After Easter I start the module on Doctrine. The headings sound deep so I'll update you after the module finishes. Alongside this runs my preaching 2 unit which will prepare me for further sermons, so watch for the adverts!!

Next year I join the ALM course. The ALM's focus on different areas within the Church such as Pastoral, Youth, Leading Worship, Music, Social awareness. If you are interested, enrolment is now being taken for the year's course starting in September 2010. VILLAGE OPEN GARDENS DAYS

The four villages of the Barton Bendish half of the benefice will all be having their annual 'Open Gardens' events this June. Each one is different. but each one offers you the chance to see and enjoy a range of lovely gardens. They aren't all large, or perfect, but all are lovingly tended by proud owners. There are teas. lunches, plants for sale, other stalls and entertainments. Dogs are usually welcome as well! What more could you want? Make a note of the dates:

Beachamwell Sunday June 6th

Boughton Sunday June 13th

Wereham Sunday June 20th

Barton Bendish Sunday June 27th

If you are able to open your garden, or help in any other way, please contact your churchwardens for details. These are important fundraisers for the churches, so we look forward to seeing you.

BARTON BENDISH & EASTMOOR VILLAGE NEWS

Hopefully by the time everyone reads this we will have had some nice spring weather. I thought when we had such a mild autumn that the winter would seem short but it dragged on and on. Once we got rid of the snow and ice it was replaced at the end of February with cold rain - and rather a lot of it too! Then all of sudden March arrived and hurrah so did the sun but not the warmth. Jill Mason

Spring is here (well nearly)

To help brighten up the village Chalk Farm Nursery has donated several hundred daffodil bulbs. These have been planted at various places around the village signs and along the hedgerows.

Thank you for this kind gesture and we hope this will help the villagers think of you for many years to come. Keith Benn

The Spread Eagle

Lori and Martin have recently left the pub and sadly at the moment it stands empty and forlorn. I think I speak for nearly everyone in the village in expressing the hope that some one will soon take it over and turn it into a village friendly pub with a homely atmosphere. In the present economic climate there aren't too many people willing to take on a business such as that especially in a small village like Barton. It would be very sad if its closure became permanent. Jill Mason

Boughton Quiz

Two teams represented the village as well as one fielded by Eastmoor at the Boughton Quiz Night in the Village Hall. While none of us quite managed to win it neither did we disgrace ourselves. It's only a bit of fun and I hope everyone enjoyed it as much as our team did. Thanks Boughton – hope you raised a fair amount. Jill Mason

THE PANTOMIME

The total amount raised by the Panto was £1,653.81. After expenses were deducted Barton Bendish, Boughton and Wereham each received £541.27. Eileen Richardson

Swaffham Community Hospital

The Christmas collection for Swaffham Community Hospital from Barton Bendish came to an impressive £75.50. Many thankyous to the good folk who contributed. Lissa Kinsey

Mayor's Civic Awards 2010

Barton Bendish Parish Council is very pleased to announce that David Mason has received the Mayor of King's Lynn Civic Award in recognition of all his work on behalf St Andrew's and our Village Hall.

David is a keen naturalist and photographer and has raised hundreds of pounds for the church and the hall by both giving illustrated talks on his travels and donating a portion of the income from the sales of wildlife photographs at our various village functions. He has given unstintingly of his time to making improvements in and around the church and particularly the village hall which he has helped to redecorate totally. He will put his hand to anything including painting and carpentry all of which he does with no fuss and only those working with him know just how much he has done. He has also spent much time researching the archives of the village and has compiled a photographic encyclopedia from the early 1800's to the present day together with a DVD on Barton Bendish and its history with which again he has raised funds for the church.

He is a tireless supporter of village events and is a reliable pair of hands when it comes to preparation for these events and, perhaps even more important, clearing up afterwards! David received his award at a ceremony in King's Lynn Town Hall on Tuesday evening, 9th March. I am sure that the whole village will agree when I say very well done David, and thoroughly deserved!

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT!!

Hotel Key Cards

This is pretty good information. Never even thought about key cards containing anything other than an access code for the room! Ever wonder what is on your magnetic key card? Answer: a. Customer's name b. Customer's partial home address c. Hotel room number d. Check-in date and out dates e. Customer's credit card number and expiration date!

When you turn them in to the front desk your personal information is there for any employee to access by simply scanning the card in the hotel scanner. An employee can take a hand full of cards home and using a scanning device, access the information onto a laptop computer and go shopping at your expense. Simply put, hotels do not erase the information on these cards until an employee reissues the card to the next hotel guest. At that time, the new guest's information is electronically 'overwritten' on the card and the previous guest's information is erased in the overwriting process. But until the card is rewritten for the next guest, it usually is kept in a drawer at the front desk with YOUR INFORMATION ON IT!

The bottom line is: Keep the cards, take them home with you, or destroy them. NEVER leave them behind in the room or room wastebasket and NEVER turn them into the front desk when you check out of a room. They will not charge you for the card (it's illegal) and you'll be sure you are not leaving a lot of valuable personal information on it that could be easily lifted off with any simple scanning device card reader.

For the same reason, if you arrive at the airport and discover you still have the card key in your pocket, do not toss it in an airport trash basket. Take it home and destroy it by cutting it up, especially through the electronic information strip!

If you have a small magnet, pass it across the magnetic strip several times. Then try it in the door, it will not work. It erases everything on the card.

BARTON BENDISH & EASTMOOR VILLAGE NEWS

3. Councillors Richardson and English are arranging an on-site meeting with Anglian Water to discuss the smell from the sewage plant.

4. A new gritting route for the village has been requested which will mean that the gritting lorry will turn left from the top of Fincham Road and come round through the village via Buttlands Lane and Church Road. It is hoped that this change will be implemented for next winter.

5. The Parish Council is still negotiating with BT and the Borough Council regarding the retention of the red telephone boxes in Barton Bendish and Eastmoor. There is no danger of losing them but the bureaucracy grinds on!

6. Councillor R. Lord has proposed that a board be prepared which shows the names of all the Chairmen of the Parish Council since it was created in 1894. The next issue of Group Four will contain this list and the Council would be very grateful if those whose memories go back far enough could check name spellings, dates in office, etc and advise the Parish Clerk of any identified errors.

7. The Council took note of a letter from Ely Diocese regarding the future of the Rectory as it is not intended that any future vicar of St Andrews should live there. Correspondence on this matter is currently on-going between the Parochial Church Council and the Diocese.

8. The next meeting of the Parish Council will take place on Wednesday, 5th May, 2010 in the Village Hall. This will start with the Annual General Meeting which will be followed by an Ordinary Meeting.

Lt Col I.R.Berchem , Parish Clerk.

Forthcoming Events

FAMILY COFFEE MORNING EASTER SATURDAY

Please bring the family along to our coffee morning on 3rd April in aid of the Village Hall. There will be something for everyone and the more people who enter the competitions the more fun it will be. Apart from the usual running costs funds are needed to purchase a shed for additional storage as the store room is now full to overflowing. See advert on page 18

St Mary's News

I do hope that Spring has arrived by the time the April edition of Group4 arrives on your doorstep and that we are all able to spend more time in the garden. I would once again ask for your help when you are out and about in the village. We have been reminded that the theft of copper, lead and other metals from church roofs, guttering and lightning conductors is still widespread due to the high price of these materials. There is no work scheduled for the roof or guttering of St Mary's Church in the foreseeable future and we would greatly appreciate your help in protecting our church from such theft. If you notice anything suspicious happening on the roof we would be very grateful if you would contact either of the churchwardens or the police.

St Mary's Vestry Meeting and AGM will be held in the Village Hall at 7.30 p.m. on Wednesday 8th April. We look forward to seeing as many people as possible at this open meeting and if there are any items you would like discussed please let us know either beforehand or at the meeting.

We have two events for your diary and look forward to seeing you there:-

1. Sunday 2nd May - Beachamwell Half-Marathon – Please support the Half-Marathon by either taking part or coming to support the runners, walkers and cyclists when they set off from the Village Hall at 9 a.m.

2. Sunday 6th June - Open Gardens Day - with the Hilgay Silver Band on the Village Green, Ouse Washes Molly Dancers at the Old Rectory, Organ Recital in the Church, Treasure Hunt and lots more to do and see.

Don't forget – Afternoon Tea and Cakes on Wednesday 21st April in the Village Hall from 2 - 4 p.m.

WI:

Our speaker was David White from RSPB Lakenheath Fen with his talk entitled 'From Carrots to Bitterns'. He told us how the reserve had been turned from carrot fields back to a fen with lots of hard work from machines and volunteers. Together with some lovely photos he described the process and then told us of the birds and animals who now inhabit the reserve. An enjoyable and interesting talk by a knowledgeable and likeable young man.

Susie Brunton of Drymere

Susie was born at Gooderstone 95 years ago and had three younger brothers. She was a cook at the Grammar School in Swaffham before she married Charlie in 1936 and went to live at Drymere. After a while working for the Forestry she became a housewife and was well known in the family for being a good cook and always had a cake in the pantry.

With her husband Charlie, she was a regular worshiper at Shingham Methodist Chapel for many years until it closed. Many Preachers had tea at Drymere between afternoon and evening services on Sundays with the table laden with home cooked fare. She helped with the Sunday School and spent many hours writing out recitations for the children in the anniversaries.

Over the years she gave a home to several relations and looked after them.

She was a prolific letter witter and kept in touch with many people for many years and always sent out lots of birthday and Christmas cards.

After a fall last October and a spell in Swaffham Hospital, she moved to the Paddocks Care Home and then into Westfields where she died on 18th February 2010.

She had a long and happy life in her quiet way.

June Banwell (Susie's niece]

Susie was our longest serving resident of Drymere and had many stories to tell of past times in the early days of the Forestry Commission at Drymere, local events and local families. I enjoyed our occasional chats when she would tell about her memories of the past or show me her collection of wonderful old photos. She was a link to al long gone way of life and will be sadly missed.

WEREHAM VILLAGE NEWS

Bill Ward

Sadly, after a prolonged illness, Bill Ward of Wereham passed away on the 23rd February. His wife Barbara and family greatly appreciate the cards and kind words of sympathy from their friends in the village. A service marking a celebration of Bill's life is being arranged for Tuesday 4th May at St Margaret's church and all friends are invited to attend.

Wereham Tots

A Prize Bingo evening will be held in the Village Hall on Saturday 5th June at 7.30pm.

We will be joining forces with Little Oak's Pre-school for this event. The proceeds will be divided. Hopefully this will enable us to treat our 'tots' to a summer outing and it will enable Little Oak's to purchase some new equipment.

Donations of prizes will be most gratefully received—either pop them along to the Wereham Tots session in the village hall on a Friday morning (10-12) or contact Angela (01366 500115) or Nicky (01366 500087) and we can arrange a pick up. Thank you

BOUGHTON VILLAGE NEWS

Flower Festival

There was an encouraging response to my request for help with the flower festival and it will be going ahead on the first weekend in May, to include the Bank Holiday. The theme this year is 'All the Saints' - which should give plenty of scope. If anyone can help with cakes and raffle prizes, that would be wonderful. We also need people who are prepared to spend time in the church on the days when it is open and most of all we need you to publicise it and persuade friends and relatives from outside the village to come and support us. They can do two flower festivals in one day, as once again we are cooperating with Fincham and holding them on the same weekend. Pam Illuminations and Carol Singing:Many thanks to those of you who kindly assisted with the filling and placement of luminaries' around the pond on Christmas Eve and also the kind donations of mince pies etc. We think you will agree the pond looked spectacular. The illuminations event raised £70 for EACH.Our grateful thanks also to those of you brave enough to turn out and sing carols and those of you sensible enough to stay indoors and give so generously – by golly it was cold. A huge thank you to Barry Ovel for the most welcome warming refreshments. Carol singing raised £81.40 for EACH.

Chris Scoles.

Chris Scoles, a son of Boughton, passed away last month.

Chris was born in Boughton, in what was the White Horse pub set by the pond. He lived there for a number of years before moving to Stoke Ferry where he attended the local school. Later he moved back to Boughton and latterly lived in Manor Cottages, where his mother had lived next door also.

A skilled electrician by trade Chris was well known and liked around the village and often helped people with their electrical problems and did jobs for them.

In more recent years he was unable to work, and would frequently be seen walking on his regular journey to Stoke Ferry for his provisions. Although often offered a lift, he would refuse with a cheery wave and a polite 'No thanks, but thank you'.

I only knew Chris for about four years but he came across as a personable chap, and when we met would often discuss old Norfolk ways, much to my benefit in understanding more about local history and customs. He did not much care for the winter, disliking the dull days and long nights. A friend told me that he would often say in November 'see you in spring' and literally disappear from view for a few months, re-appearing when the days started to brighten and lengthen.

He was taken ill towards the end of January and died on February 8th 2010 a sad loss of a true Norfolk man and son of Boughton.

I have drawn the above information from talking to people around the village. If I have any details incorrect or incomplete I would be glad to correct or add to them.

BOUGHTON VILLAGE NEWS

Boughton Cricket Club gains a cricket ground.

Alan and Rosemary Wilkinson have very generously agreed to lease a parcel of their land to be used as a cricket ground within the village. The Wilkinson Cricket Ground is work in progress. The field has been seeded and we are on our way to having a Cricket pitch. More work is obviously required but we do have a number of enthusiastic people that are keen to get on with the job. An Atco Cylinder mower has been donated by a generous villager to keep the wicket cut. We do realise however that the formation of a good wicket will take time. Following discussion with Andrew Faherty we are in the advanced stages of forming a Cricket Club affiliated to the ECB. The necessary Officers have been identified, approached and have agreed to undertake the functions needed to constitute a Cricket Club. Colin Sampson has kindly provided us with the names of Local Councillors that assist with funding for such a venture. There will be the requirement for some substantial facilities ie. Sight Screens, Pavilion, pitch and wicket marking. That is where funding will be needed.

Both Ben Wilkinson and Andrew Faherty are busy organising fixtures and net sessions for the forthcoming season. We have in addition located some photographs of Boughton's original Cricket team; won't it be nice if we could hang them in a new pavilion?

We are on our way and expect to assemble our Officers for the first meeting of the Boughton Cricket Club in the near future.

If you are interested in playing a few friendly games then please contact Angela Faherty on 501335.Frank Reid

Boughton Community Speedwatch – April Update

By the time you read this the initial training of volunteers would have taken place under the guidance of the Community Speedwatch liaison officer. The next action is to ensure all volunteers are ready and equipped to carry out low-key speed monitoring of vehicles passing through the village.

If you see them around the village please give a wave and show your support. Remember the Speedwatch team are helping you to stay safe by monitoring vehicles and recording those speeding through our village, often at speeds which would certainly cause mayhem were there to be an accident. We have been lucky not to have had any incidents recently, when we have all witnessed speeds of 60 plus mph of vehicles passing through the village. Updates about Speedwatch will be issued regularly, providing you with information regarding monitoring in the village.

All Saints Community Project Update - April 2010

Chair sponsorship Appeal.

The chair appeal is proving to be successful and which, including Gift Aid contributions, has reached £2000. This is a magnificent effort and we thank all those in the village who have so far contributed. The appeal is still open so if you would like to make a donation it would most gratefully be received.

We are currently in the process of choosing the chairs, which has proved more challenging than we anticipated. Size, colour, frame type, material and stacking considerations are all matters to be taken account of. However progress is being made and we shall update progress regularly.

Own a piece of Boughton history.

Interest in owning one of the pews being removed to make way for the new chairs has been registered by a number of parishioners. Ensure you do not miss this unique opportunity to own a piece of Boughton history, and to help with the Community Project also. If you would like to register your interest simply return the form in last months G4 news, or contact The Treasurer, BCCDC, Rectory House Oxborough Road Boughton.

Fund Raising.

How is the Project Committee raising the funds needed to carry out the works?

Well, the above two items are examples of how we are trying to raise funds. In addition we have approached specialist organisations asking for grants towards the cost of the works. Our applications are currently under consideration and we shall update as we receive further information.

Additionally we have approached local businesses informing them of the Project and inviting them to support this worthy scheme.

Also there will be a number of events being held throughout the year, and they will be headlined 'In support of the Community Project' we hope you will be able to offer your support by attending these events, and by bringing your friends too!

Deanery Lent service March 3rd

Once again Boughton was pleased to host one of the Deanery Lent services. These are traditionally held on Wednesdays during Lent, visiting churches in all parts of the Deanery group of parishes. We often have one as we are known as a warm church! This is very important on a freezing March evening! There were nearly fifty people in the church to hear the Rev. Andrew Haig, senior chaplain at QEH, talk about his work in the hospital and some of the challenges he faces. There were times when the occasions he described were almost unbearably sad and all he could do was be there, but there were also times when the congregation burst out laughing at the funny things that can happen to a hospital chaplain. Many thanks to Robin Blackall for taking the service, which was attended by people from all over the deanery and from most of the parishes in our own group, and also to Tom Golden for playing and the choir from the northern part of the benefice, and to those who helped with refreshments afterwards. The atmosphere was lovely - I'm not sure I want to know how many biscuits my dog wheedled out of people when I wasn't looking! Nearly £80 was raised for the Bishop's Lent Appeal. Pam
