The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.
With reference to the proposed sale of Parish land on Mr. Marks farm Mr Hall said that Mr Marks had discussed the matter with Mr L. Hawkins, Auctioneer of Downham Market who advised him not to proceed any further with the matter in view of possible heavy enquiry and transference costs Mr Hall said the parish accounts showed a balance in hand of £6-10.

It was decided to call a meeting at an early date to arrange for "Salute the Soldier" week for which Boughton had been put a target of £2-5-0-0.5-0d.

Mr Robinson proposed that Mr H Hall be appointed chairman for the coming year
